4 DISCLOSURES

We will only disclose personal information to other companies within our group of companies, government bodies and law enforcement agencies, successors in title to our business and suppliers we engage to process data on our behalf.

5 SECURITY

- 5.1 We take the security of your information very seriously, and have controls and processes to minimise the risk of a data breach occurring, though you must take responsibility when visiting other websites, even if following a link to them from our Website.
- 5.2 We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected or actual personal data breach and will notify you or the appropriate regulator where we are legally required to do so, and we will make all efforts to minimise the impact.
- 5.3 We may use external companies to process information which are based overseas and outside Europe. We ensure that they have strict checks and controls in place to keep your information safe.

6 DOCUMENT RETENTION

- 6.1 We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.
- 6.2 To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

7 OTHER WEBSITES

Our Website may contain links to other websites which are outside our control and are not covered by this Privacy Policy. If you access other sites using the links provided, the operators of these sites may collect information from you which will be used by them in accordance with their privacy policy, which may differ from ours.

8 ACCESS RIGHT

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data such as:

- Requesting access to your personal data;
- Requesting a correction to your personal data;
- Requesting erasure of your personal data;
- Objecting to the processing of your personal data;
- Requesting a restriction on the processing of your personal data;
- Requesting a transfer of your personal data; and/or
- Your right to withdraw your consent.

If you wish to exercise any of these rights please email us at info@meshh.com. No fee is usually required to exercise your rights under data protection law, however we may charge £10 if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive, excessive or if you require further copies of the information that we have already sent you.

9 INTERNET-BASED TRANSFERS

Given that the Internet is a global environment, using the Internet to collect and process personal data necessarily involves the transmission of data on an international basis. Therefore, by browsing this Website and communicating electronically with us, you acknowledge and agree to our processing of personal data in this way.

10 COOKIE POLICY

- 10.1 Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our site. By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.
- Analytical/performance cookies. They allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.
- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
- Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

10.2 Use of cookies:

We process personal information collected via this Website for the purposes of dealing with your enquiries and requests.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the tables below:

10.2.1 For www.meshh.com

Cookie	Name	Purpose	More information
comment_author_{HASH}		If visitors comment on the blog/news section of the website they get cookies stored on their computer.	https://codex.wordpress.org/WordPress_Cookies
comment_author_email_{HASH}		This is purely a convenience, so that the visitor won't need to re-type all their information again when they want to leave another comment. Note that comments are disabled by default on the Meshh website, so it unlikely

comment_author_url_{HASH}		that these cookies would be use. The actual cookies contain hashed data, so you don't have to worry about someone gleaning your username and password by reading the cookie data. A hash is the result of a specific mathematical formula applied to some input data (in this case your user name and password, respectively). It's quite hard to reverse a hash (bordering on practical infeasibility with today's computers). This means it is very difficult to take a hash and "unhash" it to find the original input data. _ga		These cookies are used to collect information about how visitors use our website. We use the information to compile reports and to help us improve the website. The cookies collect information in an anonymous form, including the number of visitors to the website and blog, where visitors have come to the website from and the pages they visited.	https://support.google.com/analytics/answer/6004245
